[There is no irregularities reported in selection of recipients for CSR funds from NRL during last three years and the current year.
At NRL, our mechanism for grievance redressal involves engaging in open discussions with stakeholders, collaborating with the district administration, and working closely with local panchayat leaders to ensure that all concerns are addressed effectively. Over the last three years and the current year, we have not received any complaints or grievances regarding the selection of recipients of CSR funds, agencies, or projects. Consequently, there are no complaints pending or disposed of during this period.]
