VENDOR's QUERY	NRL's ANSWER
Minimum chargeable kilometre required.	There is no minimum chargeable kilometre.
For Normal consignment-----(minimum weight required).	There is no minimum weight limit for normal consignments. From our experience, we have found that the minimum weight of a consignment that was moved using our past transportation contract was approximately around 50 Kg. However, it may be less than 50 Kg's in future. NRL will be unable to specify an exact minimum weight.
For BOQ Sl. No.- 310 to 360---Weight & Dimension required.	Item S/N-310 to 360, have been kept in the provisions of the contract considering that it will not be possible to transport certain items in the vehicles which are mentioned in line items-10-300 and 370-420. To address such unforeseen circumstances, we have kept the provision of using trailers to move such consignments. Therefore, NRL will be unable to specify any dimensions and weights of such consignments beforehand.

Rest of the tender terms and conditions remain same
